

Master of Education Montessori Integrative Learning

in cooperation with the Houston Montessori Center (HMC)

2015-2016 Course Announcement

Houston Montessori students are invited to obtain graduate credit for their Montessori training through The Institute for Educational Studies (TIES) at Endicott College, an internationally recognized Montessori graduate program that will begin its 20th year in September 2015. Endicott College is located in Beverly, Massachusetts, just north of Boston. This program continues to be a forerunner in online education.

To earn your M.Ed. requires 36 credits. Please visit the program website at www.ties-edu.org. The descriptions here provide insight into the context of the program. We also encourage you to read the Program Commentaries page. The web site is where you will find the online graduate school application.

United States citizens qualify for Federally financed guaranteed student loans. The contact person is Joanne Rakoc <jrakoc@endicott.edu> Canadian citizens can apply for Financial Aid through their Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities, Student Financial Assistance Branch.

If you enroll for the M.Ed. before you start at HMC, your HMC fees may also be covered. Contact us in the TIES office and we can explain the process.

HMC students:

When you enroll at HMC for Summer 2015 your M.Ed. matriculation begins in September 2015. This means all parts of the M.Ed. application need to be completed by July 1, 2015.

You will receive a $1500 tuition reduction* for each of the three semesters: September 2015-February 2016, March 2016-August 2016 and September 2016-February 2017. This is equivalent to 12 credits for completing the HMC program.

There are no required residencies on the physical campus. Credits are earned through Endicott's innovative eCampus.
